As we experience the African renaissance nowhere do we see it more than in Accra; this is why we felt that there was a need for a creative and innovative magazine for travelers in this ever changing city. Our mission at Key Ghana is to make your travel more meaningful and more memorable by exploring more authentic and enriching ways of visiting this modern African city. We encourage travelers to celebrate the things that are otherwise taken for granted when traveling. Take the time to discover local markets, and small neighborhood businesses. We suggest that you learn to buy and cook local food, learn how to live like locals. In the process, you will have casual conversations with the owner of a market stand or an exchange of greetings with people on the street, this is when you will learn that from these little interactions you will learn and appreciate this rich culture. We hope that you enjoy the first issue of Key Ghana, which is focused on giving you advice, tips and stories that will make your stay in Accra more meaningful and memorable.

ACCRA SPORTS STADIUM

Experience the passion of Ghana soccer. To get in on the fun, buy a copy of the Daily Graphic on a Friday/Saturday to get accurate times and dates for the matches taking place that weekend.
LEARN TO PLAY DRUMS
Rhythm and drumming are very important in Ghanaian life, and their beat has influenced music all over the world. Get a crash course by visiting the Academy of African Music and Arts (AMAA) in Kokrobite founded by one of Ghana’s most famous musicians, the master drummer Mustafa Tettey Addy. Learn the basics of traditional Ghanaian music, drumming, and dance.

ABURI BOTANICAL GARDENS
A 65-hector garden with some amazingly large trees along with a variety of beautiful indigenous and exotic plants set in peaceful parkland, that seems to have a special ambience. The drive into the mountains is beautiful. This is an ideal place for a family outing or a picnic.

KWAME NKRUMAH MEMORIAL PARK AND MAUSOLEUM
This park is dedicated to the founding father of Ghana, Kwame Nkrumah. There is a very decorative and interesting mausoleum that marks his final resting place. The park is expansive and beautiful, and there are numerous fountains and statues that are dedicated to Ghana’s independence. Keep an eye out for the many beautiful peacocks roaming freely on the grounds.

EAT FRESH PLANTAIN CHIPS
Plantain chips is one of the most common food products you see being sold in traffic in the streets of Ghana, don’t miss out.

MAKOLA MARKET
Makola is a huge open air market. In this bustling central market of Accra one can find just about anything for a good price, if you are willing to bargain a little. The real gems are hidden in very crowded alley ways. At the edge of the market are wonderful fabric shops with traditional wax prints. A must see for anyone who finds themselves in Accra.

BEACHES

BOJO BEACH
5 minutes from Kokrobite junction
Tel: 024 232 5169
A long, narrow, sand island, that you access by canoe. Enjoy the watching waves as you sit in the shade of a thatched open-air restaurant, with your toes in the sand.

LANGMA BEACH
Situated off the Kasoa Highway and close to Kokrobite spectacular and clean strip of white sand where you can get delicious grilled lobsters and barracudas served with freshly ground local peppers and chilled drinks. But what we really dig about Langma is it’s free! And as if that were not enough, it’s never crowded so it feels like a private beach even though it is public.

TAWALA BEACH
Behind the La General hospital. In addition to the powerful waves, one can enjoy a cold drink at the bar and a playground for children. At night, the place is the ideal for a walk on the dimly lit beach or stargazing. Try Tawala’s hot banku, which is usually served with grilled tilapia and topped with fresh onions and tomatoes.

LAGOON BEACH
A stretch of golden sand where you can access by canoe. Enjoy the watching waves as you sit in the shade of a thatched open-air restaurant, with your toes in the sand.

HELPFUL WEBSITE
cracaexpat.com
Located in the northern part of the country, it is like a conglomeration of villages where one can find an architectural blend of traditional mud houses.

1. CENTRAL MOSQUE
   The most impressive building in the whole of Tamale definitely is the Central mosque that is visible from almost everywhere in the city's center. Outside of the praying hours you are welcome to visit the mosque at any time. It is possible to even enter the narrow corridor inside the dome, the highest point of the mosque. From the second floor you can get a great view of the city.

2. VILLAGE BEHIND ASMEPE LODGE
   Visit authentic village where you will see how people in these villages go about their daily lives. You will see women pick the green fruit of the shea nut tree –to create shea butter that has a multiplicity of traditional uses, from healing to cooking daily stews.

3. CENTER FOR NATIONAL CULTURE
   Check out the stalls around the Center for National Culture, it is just as good as most arts and crafts markets, there you can find local crafts, cloth and beads. The busy market is also a good place to have a drink and play ping pong or pool.

4. CENTRAL MARKET
   Another must-see in Tamale is the central market, in the heart of town. On the outside of the market you will find bigger items ranging from bicycles to coffins. Inside find dried fish, rice, pigheads, cowlegs, and also fresh vegetables, spices, typical Ghanaian red oil and lots of delicious fruit. Along with food you will find a lot of kitchen gear and colorful cloth. The best way to see it and to find something is just to start wandering around.

HOW TO GET THERE:
Antrak flies between Tamale and Accra (US $144, 1¼ hours). From the STC station, two buses a day go to Kumasi (US $10, six hours) and four a day depart for Accra (ordinary/luxury US $10/16, 12 hours). There’s also a Tuesday service to Cape Coast and Takoradi (US$11, 12 hours).
ELMINA

Rich in history this town is home to some of the oldest castles and forts in West Africa.

1. ELMINA CASTLE
   Was erected by Portugal in 1482. It is the oldest European building in existence below the Sahara. First established as a trade settlement, it later became one of the most important stops on the route of the Atlantic slave trade.

2. ELMINA LAGOON
   Elmina Lagoon provides the pulse of the fishing village that surrounds it. With an overflow of activity as people go about their daily routine, in this case setting out to sea to catch fish in a wide array of colorful boats.

HOW TO GET THERE:

ADA FOAH

A small town east of Accra where the Volta River and the sea join to create a unique ecosystem.

1. VOLTA RIVER ESTUARY
   Here the sea and the river join creating big waves. You will also find a wildlife paradise: marine turtles, birds, crocodiles, monkeys and in the salty parts mangrove vegetation. This unique ecosystem makes it ideal conditions for sailing, canoeing, fishing, water skiing, wake boarding.

2. ADA FOAH BEACH
   Long, sandy beaches with coconut trees and fishermen with their boats and nets, you will be challenged with the decision of where to swim first – the calm and shallow river or the wild, wavy ocean.

HOW TO GET THERE:
Regular Tro-Tros connection (1 1/2 to 2 1/2 hours, about 120 km) from Tudu Station.
